

Stephen Gilchrist

Solicitor Chairman

Regulatory & Fraud

gilchrist@saunders.co.uk

Admitted as a Solicitor in 1974, Stephen has been a well known commentator on legal issues, regularly appearing on the major TV channels, writing columns in the legal press and contributing to international conferences.

He has trained the legal profession on litigation topics in the context of Continuing Professional Development.

For many years a leading general criminal law practitioner, Stephen now principally focuses on Regulatory issues and related litigation. He has a leading practice in Fraud, Financial Services Litigation, Health & Safety, Professional and Sports' Regulation, but relishes new challenges