

Saunders Law

— Ltd —

Charmian Smith

Placement Student

Crime

charmian.smith@saunders.co.uk

Charmian is reading Law at Nottingham Law School and is currently undertaking her work placement with the firm.

She joined Saunders in July 2011 working in the Criminal department alongside the other placement students. She has completed previous work experience following cases in the Crown Court with Mason, Baggott and Garton Solicitors. This important experience furthered her interest in Criminal Law.

Away from work Charmian has a keen interest in many sports including netball and she captained one of the Nottingham Trent University Netball teams.