

Saunders Law

— Ltd —

Christopher Burgon

Consultant Solicitor

christopher.burgon@saunders.co.uk

Christopher qualified as a solicitor in February 2000. Working in commercial, West End practices, with a wide variety of clients including high net worth individuals, businesses, charities, housing associations and local authorities, he is committed to providing the highest levels of service.

His experience, which includes complex, high value disputes worth many millions of pounds, enables him to reach a full understanding of his client's position and to provide the assistance and advice required throughout any dispute.

Christopher always seeks to gain a full picture of his client's requirements and how the dispute will affect the client and their business or property. The advice and assistance he gives to clients is tailored specifically to enable them to get the result they want, in the quickest and most cost effective way.

Specialties

Christopher has experience of a wide range of disputes affecting businesses and property owners, including the following:

- Contract disputes
- Emergency applications and injunctions
- Partnership and shareholder disputes
- Contentious insolvency, breach of fiduciary duty
- Directors' disqualification proceedings
- Professional negligence
- Property disputes
- Contentious probate
- Commercial landlord and tenant disputes
- Residential landlord and tenant actions
- Debt recovery

Christopher was educated at Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School, Wakefield and studied History at the University of Hull and Law at Leeds Metropolitan University.

He is an accomplished guitar player and enjoys swimming and walking. He is currently learning to speak Spanish.