

Saunders Law

— Ltd —

Greg Wedge

Placement Student

Gregory is currently reading Law at Nottingham Law School undertaking the LLB Sandwich year course.

He joined Saunders in July 2011 as a placement student, working within the Criminal department.

Greg has had experience working through various internships and placements, including the law department in Essex County Council, and vital experience with Pinsent Masons.

Away from work, Greg enjoys playing for Saracens RFC sharing a keen interest in the sport (playing at both county and regional level), and also during the past year has become involved in his university's rowing team.