

Saunders Law

Ltd

James Saunders

Solicitor Managing Director

Crime & Litigation

james@saunders.co.uk

A lifetime's experience of traditional crime and appellate work; a lecturer and commentator on criminal law; a leader in forensic issues in crime; noted as a leading criminal lawyer in "The Legal 500" and "Chambers Directory"; described by "The Legal 500" as a 'consummate strategist, and his judgment on the long view of cases is spot on'. Additionally, now heads teams on Regulatory and Litigation cases. Recent cases of note include Rimmington – inside dealing; Twomey – trial without jury; Tony Martin – self defence.

A founder member of North Kensington Law Centre 1970; admitted 1972; founder of Saunders & Co 1974; founder 1990 and current director of Westminster Drug Project.

A member of the Law Society; Solicitor's Assistance Scheme; Specialist Fraud Panel.

Educated at King Edward VII Grammar School Sheffield; Leicester University LLB.

Born 1948 and resides in London.