Kandice holds a B.A. in Economics from the University of Maryland – College Park, a Juris Doctor from the University of Virginia School of Law, and a LL.M. in Trial Advocacy from Temple University, Beasley School of Law.

She qualified as a lawyer in the United States in 2003, and qualified as an English solicitor, by transfer, in 2011.

A trial advocate for over six years in the USA, primarily as an Assistant District Attorney in Philadelphia, she tried cases ranging from simple drug possession to attempted murder and also handled asset forfeiture cases. She also served as an Assistant State's Attorney in Prince George's County, Maryland.

Kandice has assisted on a number of high profile cases, including an appeal against a murder conviction, a complex fraud trial involving an international scheme with laundered sums in excess of 37 million dollars, and civil recovery proceedings brought against a man imprisoned in the U.A.E. Kandice also has experience handling confiscation proceedings following conviction.

Outside of work, she enjoys travel and is a self-admitted gym addict. Her most cherished athletic accomplishment is finishing a marathon to raise money for a charity in 2005.
