Karen is head of the Traditional Crime Department accepting instructions from both private and publicly funded clients. She also leads our team of specialist Higher Courts Advocates.

Practising as a qualified Higher Rights Advocate, Karen predominantly appears as sole advocate in many cases, and in the most serious cases as part of a team of advocates in the Crown Court. She has amassed significant experience of the most serious cases such as murder, large scale drug conspiracies and high value fraud. Karen has also appeared at courts martial and in the Court of Appeal.
