

Saunders Law

— Ltd —

Nia Williams

Solicitor and Higher Courts Advocate (Civil)

niawilliams@saunders.co.uk

Nia studied the International Baccalaureate at the United World College of the Atlantic before obtaining a degree in Philosophy and Sociology from Bristol University. She subsequently studied at the College of Law and was admitted as a solicitor in 2008.

In 2010 she joined the firm as part of the civil litigation department, specialising in Actions against the Police and Employment law. Nia is a Higher Rights Advocate in the civil courts.

A specialist in representing those who have suffered injustice by the police and other state bodies, she is experienced at bringing claims for all forms of discrimination and under the Human Rights Act, along with police complaints, appeals to the IPCC, applications for Judicial Review, and inquests following deaths in custody. Nia advises on all matters of employment law and has represented many clients including police officers in claims to the Employment Tribunal for unfair dismissal and discrimination.

Nia is a member of the Police Action Lawyers Group, Inquest Lawyers Group, Lawyers for Liberty and the Employment Lawyers Association.

Outside work, Nia enjoys outdoor pursuits including hiking, climbing and cycling.